INSURANCE RECOVERY FOR ESOP COMMUNITY

Chris Kentra and Blake Roter are Co-Chairs of Burke Warren's Insurance Recovery Practice Group who have substantial experience advising members of the Employee-Owned (ESOP) community on a wide variety of insurance coverage issues. Chris and Blake are members of the National Center for Employee Ownership (NCEO) and The ESOP Association (TEA). They regularly speak about insurance and indemnification issues in the ESOP community.

Burke Warren regularly represents Employee-Owned Companies, their Boards, Officers, Directors, and Selling Shareholders, in addition to ESOP Trustees and Service Providers, relating to insurance coverage in state and federal courts across the country.

We have worked to obtain proper defense and indemnification coverage for all types of liability policies. We are also well-versed in prosecuting claims for losses relating to cyber events and first-party property and business interruption losses. ESOP community members rely on our Firm as a trusted resource for advice relating to insurance coverage issues affecting all corners of the community.

If you would like to discuss your insurance coverage issues and concerns, and learn more about how Burke Warren can help protect you and your business, please contact Insurance Recovery Practice Co-Chairs Chris Kentra at 312.840.7112 / ckentra@burkelaw.com or Blake Roter at 312.840.7116 / broter@burkelaw.com.

Christopher E. Kentra

Chris has represented clients in a wide variety of commercial, insurance, and complex litigation matters for more than 30 years. His trial and litigation practice focuses on insurance recovery, complex commercial matters, construction, professional liability, and employment law.

Blake A. Roter

Blake has represented public and private companies, including employee-owned companies and ESOP trustees, in all manner of insurance and indemnification disputes. His experience as a litigator gives him the experience necessary to prepare coverage disputes for litigation from the outset.
