

LEGACY & CULTURE

Message from Founding Partner Richard W. Burke

At Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella we commit to provide our clients the highest level of professional service with emphasis on one-on-one personal attention. To serve the needs of our clients in the business community, we have assembled highly qualified, experienced attorneys, who are entrepreneurial in their approach and who understand and accomplish our clients' goals in an efficient, professional manner.

From our founding in 1992, Burke Warren has added highly knowledgeable and seasoned practitioners, complemented by young attorneys of excellent promise whom we train with the expectation that they will become partners in the firm. Collegiality has served to minimize the transition of lawyers from the firm and to provide consistency in our relationships with one another and with our clients.

Because of the breadth of our practice, we serve many clients as their general counsel. For other clients and for in-house counsels of our corporate clients, we perform services encompassing a wide range of practice areas. Our clients range from individuals to closely held businesses to publicly held companies, and from not-for-profit entities to governmental bodies. Our many long-term client relationships attest to our success. We have nurtured these relationships by listening to our clients and learning their needs and challenges, and we have earned their loyalty.

While many firms are merging and combining with others to form ever-larger legal organizations, Burke Warren continues to achieve the goals we set in 1992: the highest quality of legal services, delivered with a personal touch, at fees that provide real value to our clients.

Richard W. Burke