

ANDRÉS ALEMÁN

Associate

T: 312.840.7076

aaleman@burkelaw.com

Andrés Alemán is an associate at Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella, P.C. Andrés is a member of the firm's Corporate and Real Estate practice groups with a focus on sophisticated transaction law. Andrés has extensive experience in developing, negotiating, and leading complex multi-million dollar transactions.

Andrés supports clients in business development activities, including corporate entity formation, drafting operative agreements, and structuring transactions to comply with regulations. He assists in the negotiation, preparation, and drafting commercial leases (office, retail, and industrial) on behalf of tenants and landlords. And he represents and advises clients in commercial lease disputes arising out default in rental payments, use violations, and common area maintenance charges.

Fluent in English and Spanish, Andrés is licensed to practice law in the United States and the European Union.

Experience

- Over a five year span acted as the advisor to the Board of Directors of a co-op complex of more than 1,300 residential units.
- Acted as general counsel to a Board of Director Member of a Fortune 200.
- Prepared and conducted the annual general meeting for over 50 companies ranging from small to Fortune 1000 in size.
- Provided assistance on a broad variety of legal issues to a resort management company with 1200+ vacation residences located near the Mediterranean coast.

PRACTICES & INDUSTRIES

Corporate
Real Estate

ADMISSIONS

Illinois

EDUCATION

CEU Cardinal Herrera University
(J.D.)

Loyola University Chicago (L.L.
M.)

Illinois Institute of Technology
(M.B.A.)

Eneae Business School (M.B.A.)

LANGUAGES

Spanish

Honors & Awards

- Professional Certificate in Business & Management

Insights

NEWS

Burke Warren Welcomes New Attorney Andrés Alemán
News, March 7, 2022