The attorneys at Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella, P.C. welcome new partner Elizabeth Davis.

With a broad corporate practice including mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance and general business counseling, Liz strengthens and broadens the Firm's transactional practice in many areas including logistics, insurance, food and beverage, manufacturing and health care. She serves as outside general counsel to domestic and international companies with respect to all aspects of their commercial needs. In both her M&A and general counsel roles, Liz advises boards of directors and other decision makers on corporate compliance, fiduciary responsibilities and transaction structure.

"Liz broadens and deepens our M&A capabilities and industry expertise," says Jeffrey D. Warren, managing partner at Burke, Warren, MacKay & Serritella. "In addition to her considerable professional talent and experience, Liz's focus on delivering great client service is a wonderful complement to the service our other attorneys deliver and to the service our clients expect from our firm. We are proud to add Liz to our team."

Founded in 1992, Burke, Warren is a full-service, midsize firm. Firm clients range from entrepreneurs to closely held businesses to publicly held companies, and from not-for-profit entities to governmental bodies. Burke, Warren's many long-term client relationships attest to its success. Based in Chicago, the Firm serves clients across the U.S. and increasingly on an international basis. Burke, Warren was recently selected to exclusively represent the greater Chicago region as a member of Lawyers Associated Worldwide, an international network of approximately 100 independent firms located in more than 50 countries.

Before joining the Firm, Liz was a corporate partner in the Chicago office of Nixon Peabody. Liz received her undergraduate degree in English and her JD (with distinction) from the University of Iowa. Liz is a member of the board of directors of the Chicago Chapter of the Association for Corporate Growth where she also serves as an active member of ACG Chicago's Women's Network.
