Doug Wambach recently received the Making a Difference Award for 2013. This award honors the contributions of an individual in the legal profession or corporate world for making a difference through his/her contributions to a mentoring/tutoring program. Doug was recognized for this work as a mentor of the firm's recent summer intern Jaquan Grier and also for his accomplishments serving as board chair of Boys Hope Girls Hope in Evanston. Boys Hope Girls Hope provides academically capable, at-risk young men and women with residential living in Evanston, and scholarships to Loyola Academy and Regina Dominican High School in Wilmette. Mr. Wambach can be reached at 312/840-7019 or dwambach@burkelaw.com.
