Danielle J. Gould

Danielle Gould will be speaking at the Pincus Professional Education seminar "Mastering the Deposition" on March 15 at the Chicago Bar Association. Danielle is an experienced litigator and practice leader in the Firm's Class Action Defense group.

This is a practical program designed to guide attendees through the nuanced art of the depo, including creating a strategy and preparing witnesses to dealing with hostile witnesses and difficult opposing counsel.

The organizer, Pincus Pro Ed, has created a 10% off "Friend of the Speaker" discount for us to pass along. Their discount code is FOSDEPO-IL. Feel free to pass this on to any colleagues who wish to attend. If you plan to send four or more attorneys, contact Pincus for an additional discount.

Program topics include:

- Overview and Strategy
- Handling Documents & Exhibits – Making the Record; Get the Authentication You Need
- Witness Preparation
- How to best prepare your witness
- Expert Witness Depositions
- Deposition Objections
- Handling the Difficult Witness and/or Opposing Counsel
- Mock Depo/Demonstration and Discussion about Demonstration

If you have any questions, please contact Pincus Pro Ed directly at (877) 858-3848 or email info@pincusproed.com. This program is approved for 7.5 units of general CLE in Illinois and 3.0 units of Professional Responsibility credit.
